

Serge Phillips
Federal Relations Manager
Minnesota Department of Transportation

Serge Phillips is MnDOT's federal relations manager since 2010. In this role, Serge works with Minnesota's congressional delegation and advises the MnDOT Commissioner on federal transportation funding, policy, and legislation. Prior to joining MnDOT, Serge worked in private practice as an attorney. Serge holds a bachelor's degree in English Literature from Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N.Y. and a law degree from Hamline University School of Law. He is married to Kim, with a son, Luke.